

Download Creativity In Education Learning

About the Author A.R. Linder is the editor of SisterPlay.com. A cornerstone of the website is a wonderful area called YouthPlay.org — a compilation of many of the websites she has used in educating herself and her child. Ms. Linder is a graduate of the University of South Florida in Tampa, FL. Where have the arts in education gone? Over the past several years, we've all seen the trend of schools cutting the arts from their curriculum. Music, art, theater—gone for so many. There's no doubt that the arts are fun for kids. Diving into those finger paints and making a beautiful picture ...Help Pics4Learning grow! Pics4Learning is a user supported collection. Contribute your own images to education's largest image collection! Share an image today, it's quick and easy. Four specific skills are most important for preparing students to succeed in the 21st Century: critical thinking, communication, collaboration, and creativity. NEA developed this guide to help K-12 educators incorporate these ideas into their instruction.