

Download Foodborne Disease Outbreaks Guidelines For Investigation And Control

WHO Library Cataloguing-in-Publication Data Foodborne disease outbreaks : guidelines for investigation and control. 1.Food contamination - prevention and control. 2.Food poisoning - prevention and control. During a multistate foodborne disease outbreak, CDC serves as lead coordinator between public health partners to detect the outbreak, define its size and extent, and to identify the source. Public health officials investigate outbreaks to control them, so more people do not get sick in the outbreak ...A foodborne outbreak investigation goes through several steps. They are described here in order, but in reality investigations are dynamic and several steps may happen at the same time. Click on each step to learn more about the investigation process. Finding sick people is important to help public ...The CIFOR Guidelines for Foodborne Disease Outbreak Response (CIFOR Guidelines) are a comprehensive source of information on foodborne disease investigation and control for local, state and federal health agencies. The Guidelines describe: the overall approach to addressing foodborne disease outbreaks, including preparation, detection, investigation, control and follow-up.