

Download Honeywell Is310 Wiring Manual

Honeywell IS-310 Request-to-Exit Sensor 1. Description The IntelliSense® IS-310 is a Request-to-Exit Passive Infrared (PIR) sensor. Mounted near an exterior door inside a building with an access control system, the sensor provides free exit to individuals within the building without causing an alarm. The parts of the IS-310 are shown below ...View and Download Honeywell IS-310 manual online. Request-to-Exit Sensor. IS-310 Accessories pdf manual download. ... Insert the wiring into one of the wire channels on. L. the sensor's backplate. S. 4. Securely affix the sensor's backplate to the wall or. L. ceiling using 2 #6 X 3/4 inch (3.5 X 19 mm) screws.(ii) call Honeywell Customer Care at 1-800-468-1502. Customer This warranty does not cover removal or reinstallation costs. This warranty shall not apply if it is shown by Honeywell that the defect or malfunction was caused by damage which occurred while the prod- uct was in the possession of a consumer.The Honeywell IS310WH is a white request-to-exit sensor equipped with dual-slope temperature compensation and built-in tamper proof shutters for accurate target area detection. Outfitted with two Form C outputs, this sensor offers extensive room for wiring and allows for easy offset mounting installation.