1927: James B. Stockdale, at the age of three wearing a sailor suit, with his father at home in Abingdon, Illinois. Stockdale flew almost every propeller-driven aircraft in the Navy's inventory, but he yearned for greater challenges. What Leaders Can Do. School leaders know that most academic learning in middle and high schools takes place within classrooms. Leaders who are aware of the options teachers have to promote student motivation and engagement with literacy tasks can ensure that these options are in place in every classroom. Listen to this achiever on What It Takes. What It Takes is an audio podcast on iTunes produced by the American Academy of Achievement featuring intimate, revealing conversations with influential leaders in the diverse fields of endeavor: music, science and exploration, sports, film, technology, literature, the military and social justice. Industry and government experts will inspire, present updates, and discuss business opportunities that you will be able to act on. 2019 included speakers from the NNSA, the U.S. House of Representatives, the U.S. Senate, National Laboratories, the U.S. Department of Energy, the U.S. Department of Defense, contractors, and more.
