

Download Tcu Graduation May 2014

You may view your loans borrowed at TCU at: my.tcu.edu...Financial Aid...Loan Summary. If you need help completing these requirements, please contact the Financial Aid office at financialaid@tcu.edu. Satisfy all financial obligations, including graduation fees, in the Financial Services office by December 1. MBA or BBA, every student dreams of walking across the stage and receiving that most precious of items: a TCU diploma. For TCU MBAs, graduation begins with the Neeley School's official hooding ceremony at Ed Landreth Auditorium the evening before commencement. At graduation, students receiving the master's or doctorate degree wear an academic hood with their cap and gown. In addition to joining the TCU community in celebrating your achievement in the graduation ceremony, the College of Education has a special ceremony for you, your family, and friends called Academic Hooding. Congratulations and good luck to the Class of 2014! This feature is not available right now. Please try again later.