A civilization or civilisation (see English spelling differences) is any complex society characterized by urban development, social stratification imposed by a cultural elite, symbolic systems of communication (for example, writing systems), and a perceived separation from and domination over the natural environment.. Civilizations are intimately associated with and often further defined by ...The technological singularity (also, simply, the singularity) is a hypothetical future point in time at which technological growth becomes uncontrollable and irreversible, resulting in unfathomable changes to human civilization.. According to the most popular version of the singularity hypothesis, called intelligence explosion, an upgradable intelligent agent (such as a computer running ...Humanity has made phenomenal progress during the past two centuries, most especially during the past 50 years. The process of social development has thus far been subconscious, haphazard, inequitable, imbalanced and fought with turmoil and unanticipated side effects.MICHAEL TSARION. THE IRISH ORIGINS OF CIVILIZATION. It may be true that our conscious functions are related to centers and activities in the brain, but that does not prove causality – Gary Jacobs (The Intelligence of the Cosmos) Perception, memory, thought, emotion, decision-making originate nowhere in the brain, nor are they stored there as so-called “engrams;” on the contrary, the ...
